

CANNONAU, PECORINO & SHEPHERDS' CUISINE

Wine Tour of Sardinia

Far from the beaches, Sardinia captivates with pure authenticity. Discover the contrast between Vermentino, the elegant white wine of the coast, and the deep red, full-bodied Cannonau from the mountains. Enjoy a traditional shepherds' meal with crispy suckling pig before immersing yourself in the Catalan-influenced charm of Alghero.

Itinerary

Day 1: Switzerland – Livorno

Journey to Tuscany, to Livorno, and embarkation on a ferry to Olbia. (Overnight on board).

Day 2: Sella & Mosca - Alghero

Disembarkation and drive to the Sella & Mosca winery, which is known for its native grape varieties and regarded as an absolute pioneer of Sardinian winegrowing. Afterwards, lunch in Alghero and a guided walking tour of the town. The former Catalan enclave delights with a picturesque old town, an imposing town wall and an architectural cultural mix. (4 nights at the Gabbiano Azzuro Hotel & Suites*).

Day 3: Cannonau and Su Gologone

After the velvety, characterful nuances of an exclusive Cannonau tasting at the family-run Iolei Winery, the day culminates in a traditional Sardinian lunch on the picturesque terrace of the Su Gologone Experience Hotel.

Day 4: Gallura

Discovery tour through Gallura with its bizarre karst mountains and countless cork oaks. Tasting at the Siddura winery, followed by a visit to a cork processing facility in Calangianus. Shared gourmet dinner in a 1-star Michelin restaurant.

Day 5: Murals - Shepherd's Meal

Today you gain valuable insights into Sardinian culture. In the bandit village of Orgosolo, enjoy a guided visit to the impressive murals (wall paintings). At lunchtime, a traditional shepherd's meal with regional specialities awaits you.

Day 6: La Maddalena Archipelago

A heavenly finale awaits you in the Maddalena archipelago: on board a private boat, enjoy the azure sea with fine rosé or spumante and delicate nibbles. Let yourself be enchanted by a touch of the Caribbean – with reddish granite rocks, green maquis and hidden white sandy beaches. In the evening, you board the ferry in Olbia.

Day 7: Livorno - Switzerland

Disembarkation and journey home.
